Introduction

Welcome to the Children's Story Scene Generator Prompts Pack.

Inside this guide you will find 150 ready-to-use illustration prompts designed specifically for creating background scenes for children's storybooks.

These prompts have been structured using a 24-page story scene system, allowing creators to generate background environments that match the natural progression of a children's book.

Instead of struggling to think of scene ideas for every page, you can simply follow the structure and generate beautiful environments for your stories.

These prompts are designed to work perfectly with your characters and story text, allowing you to quickly build complete children's books.

You can use these prompts to create:

- Storybook backgrounds
- Interior book scenes
- Visual story environments
- Additional books in a series

Simply generate the background scenes, place your characters into the environment, and your children's book pages will come to life.

The 24-Page Story Scene System

Most children's books follow a simple visual story structure.

This system provides scene prompts that match each stage of a 24-page book, helping you generate backgrounds that support the story as it unfolds.

Pages 1–2

Opening Scene

Introduce the world of the story and establish the environment.

Prompt Example

Create a bright children's book illustration of a peaceful forest clearing with tall trees, colourful flowers, soft grass, and warm sunlight shining through the branches. The scene should feel welcoming and magical, perfect for the beginning of a children's adventure story. No characters.

Pages 3–4

Character Home Scene

Show where the character lives or begins their day.

Prompt Example

Create a cute children's book illustration of a cozy forest home area with tree roots, small burrow entrances, soft moss, scattered acorns, and warm sunlight. The environment should feel safe, friendly, and comforting. No characters.

Pages 5–6

Journey Begins

The character begins their adventure.

Prompt Example

Create a colourful children's storybook illustration of a winding forest path leading deeper into tall trees, with mushrooms growing along the trail and warm sunlight filtering through the leaves. The scene should feel adventurous and inviting. No characters.

Pages 7–8

Discovery Scene

The character notices something interesting or unusual.

Prompt Example

Create a vibrant children's book illustration of a forest clearing with glowing berries, sparkling plants, and colourful flowers that look magical and mysterious. The environment should feel exciting and full of discovery. No characters.

Pages 9–10

Challenge Scene

A small obstacle or challenge appears during the adventure.

Prompt Example

Create a children's storybook illustration of a forest trail blocked by fallen logs, bushes, and tree branches with sunlight filtering through the forest canopy. The environment should suggest a small challenge or obstacle in the adventure. No characters.

Pages 11–12

Exploration Scene

The character explores a new environment.

Prompt Example

Create a colourful children's book illustration of a forest riverbank with smooth stones, tall grass, dragonflies flying above clear water, and trees reflecting in the river. The environment should feel calm and adventurous. No characters.

Pages 13–14

Special Discovery Scene

The exciting discovery moment in the story.

Prompt Example

Create a magical children's book illustration of a hidden waterfall deep in the forest with sparkling water flowing into a clear blue pool surrounded by mossy rocks, flowers, and glowing sunlight. The environment should feel magical and exciting. No characters.

Pages 15–16

Celebration Scene

A joyful moment in the story.

Prompt Example

Create a bright children's book illustration of a sunny meadow filled with colourful flowers, butterflies flying in the air, tall grass moving in the breeze, and warm sunlight across the field. The scene should feel joyful and peaceful. No characters.

Pages 17–18

Reflection Scene

A calm moment where the story slows down.

Prompt Example

Create a peaceful children's book illustration of a quiet forest stream with smooth stones, tall grass, soft moss, and golden evening sunlight shining through the trees. The environment should feel calm, warm, and relaxing. No characters.

Pages 19–20

Return Journey Scene

The character begins heading back home.

Prompt Example

Create a children's storybook illustration of a forest trail leading toward a warm glowing sunset with long shadows across the path, birds flying in the sky, and golden light shining through the trees. The environment should feel peaceful and reflective. No characters.

Pages 21–22

Home Scene

The character returns home after the adventure.

Prompt Example

Create a cozy children's book illustration of a forest home clearing with soft grass, tree roots, burrow entrances, scattered acorns, and warm sunset light glowing through the trees. The environment should feel safe and comforting. No characters.

Pages 23–24

Ending Scene

A calm ending moment that closes the story.

Prompt Example

Create a peaceful children's book illustration of a quiet forest at sunset with golden light shining through tall trees, fireflies glowing softly in the evening air, and gentle shadows across the forest floor. The scene should feel calm, magical, and perfect for ending a children's story. No characters.

Creating 150 Story Scene Prompts

Each scene type can be generated in multiple environments to create many variations for your books.

Example environments include:

- Forest scenes
- Autumn forest scenes
- Winter forest scenes
- Meadow environments
- River environments
- Jungle scenes
- Mountain scenes
- Countryside environments

By combining the 24-page structure with multiple environment styles, you can easily generate 150 or more unique storybook scenes.

This allows you to create unlimited children's books with fresh environments and visual variety.
