Alternative Subject: A new PLR collection is launching this Thursday

Hi,

If you've ever considered selling digital products in the wedding planning niche, here's something worth knowing about.

Creating a collection of guides, workbooks, checklists and marketing materials takes time.

You need to research the topic, write the content, design the pages and put everything together.

But what if much of that work was already done?

On Thursday, 5 November, a new Wedding Planning PLR Starter Kit launches.

It includes ready-to-edit wedding planning resources that you can customise, rebrand and turn into your own finished digital products.

You'll also get marketing materials and sales page templates to help you get started.

The launch price will be just $17.

I'll send you the details when it goes live.

Hi,

The Wedding Planning PLR Starter Kit is officially live!

If you're looking for digital products you can customise and sell, this new collection is worth a look.

Instead of starting from a blank page, you get a collection of editable wedding planning resources.

Here's what's included:

- Budget planning resources and checklists
- A 7-day wedding planning email sequence
- Wedding-themed social media graphics
- Three Elementor sales funnel page templates

The resources are designed for digital product creators, PLR sellers and entrepreneurs who want to explore the wedding planning niche.

EMAIL 3 — PRODUCT BENEFITS

Suggested Send Date: 7 November 2026

Subject: The real advantage of PLR isn't just saving time

Alternative Subject: One wedding PLR kit, several ways to use it

Hi,

There's something I like about a well-organised PLR package.

It's not simply that someone has already written the content.

It's what you can do with that content afterwards.

Take the Wedding Planning PLR Starter Kit, for example.

You could use the included resources to create a branded wedding planning guide.

Or turn the workbooks and checklists into practical digital downloads.

You could also use the email sequence and social graphics to support a wedding-related website or marketing campaign.

And because the package includes three Elementor sales funnel templates, you have a starting point for building your own product pages too.

Of course, you'll still need to customise the materials, choose your audience and promote your finished products.

But you won't have to create every resource from scratch.

That's a useful head start.

The complete starter kit is available for $17.

EMAIL 4 — A PRACTICAL STARTING POINT

Suggested Send Date: 9 November 2026

Subject: You don't need 20 products to get started

Alternative Subject: A simpler way to build a wedding digital product

Hi,

Sometimes the hardest part of building a digital product business is deciding what to create first.

You might have plenty of ideas.

But researching, writing, designing and packaging a new product can quickly become a big project.

Here's a simpler approach.

Start with one specific audience and one useful product.

For example, someone planning a wedding might need help organising their budget, keeping track of important tasks or avoiding common planning mistakes.

The Wedding Planning PLR Starter Kit gives you editable resources covering these kinds of problems.

You can take one resource, customise it, make it useful for your chosen audience and build from there.

You don't need to launch everything at once.

And you don't need to spend weeks creating the original material.

The starter kit is currently $17.

You can see the resources here:

A practical product that solves a clear problem is a good place to begin.

Alternative Subject: Still considering the wedding PLR collection?

Hi,

Just a quick follow-up in case you missed my earlier emails.

The Wedding Planning PLR Starter Kit launched this week, and it's designed for people who want to create wedding-related digital products without writing everything from scratch.

For $17, the starter package includes wedding planning guides, workbooks, checklists, an email sequence, social graphics and Elementor sales funnel templates.

You can customise the materials, add your branding and sell finished products under the included PLR licence.

There are also optional upgrades available for anyone who wants additional wedding stationery, marketing content or reseller business resources.

But the $17 starter kit is a useful place to begin on its own.
