Private Label Rights (PLR) Licence Agreement

Published by SN Publishing | Simon Newcombe

Product: Wedding Content & Marketing Bundle

Licence Type: Private Label Rights (PLR)

Licence Version: 1.0 — October 2026

---

1. Introduction

Thank you for purchasing the Wedding Content & Marketing Bundle .

Your purchase includes a Private Label Rights (PLR) licence, granting you permission to customise, rebrand and commercially use the included wedding planning resources under the terms outlined below.

This licence is designed to give you the freedom to create and sell your own finished digital products without having to develop all the original content from scratch.

By downloading, using or distributing the included materials, you agree to the conditions of this licence.

2. What You Are Allowed to Do

As the original purchaser, you are granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable PLR licence.

You MAY:

- Edit, rewrite, expand and customise the included content.
- Rebrand the materials using your own business name, logo and product titles.
- Add your own designs, images, covers and additional content.
- Sell finished wedding planning guides, workbooks, checklists and other end-user products.
- Combine the materials with your own original content to create new products.
- Sell your finished products through your own website, online store or compatible digital marketplace.
- Use the content to create blog posts, lead magnets, newsletters and marketing materials.

- Offer finished products as free downloads or bonuses.
- Include finished products in paid memberships, courses or client packages.
- Set your own retail prices and keep the revenue generated from your sales, subject to applicable fees and taxes.
- Use your own name or business branding on customised finished products.

There is no limit on the number of finished end-user products you may sell under this licence.

3. What You Are NOT Allowed to Do

You MAY NOT:

- Resell, share, give away or transfer the original PLR licence.
- Sell or distribute the original source package as another PLR product.
- Grant PLR, Resell Rights (RR) or Master Resell Rights (MRR) to your customers.
- Allow your customers to resell or redistribute your finished products.
- Upload the original editable source files to PLR membership sites, resale libraries or file-sharing platforms.
- Share the original product download link or licence documents with others.
- Claim ownership of the original underlying materials or claim exclusive copyright over them.
- Register the original materials, or substantially unchanged versions, as your exclusive intellectual property.
- Use the materials in unlawful, fraudulent or misleading ways.

Your customers receive personal or end-user usage rights only. They do not receive PLR or reseller rights.

4. Rebranding and Customisation

You are welcome to make the materials your own.

You may change the titles, layouts, wording, branding, colours and designs to suit your target audience.

You may also combine multiple resources from the package to create new wedding planning products.

You do not have to credit SN Publishing or Simon Newcombe when selling your customised finished products.

However, rebranding does not transfer ownership of the original underlying materials or grant exclusive rights to them.

5. Selling Your Finished Products

You may sell your finished end-user products through websites, digital product platforms, online stores and marketplaces that permit the sale of this type of content.

You are responsible for checking and following each platform's terms and conditions.

You must ensure that customers receive only the rights you are authorised to grant under this licence.

You may not advertise your finished products as including PLR, RR or MRR.

6. Copyright and Intellectual Property

The original Wedding Content & Marketing Bundle materials remain the intellectual property of SN Publishing and/or their respective rights holders.

This licence grants specified commercial usage permissions. It does not transfer copyright ownership of the original materials.

You retain ownership of any genuinely original content, artwork or other creative contributions you add, subject to applicable law and third-party rights.

You may not claim exclusive ownership of the underlying PLR materials.

7. Third-Party Materials

Any third-party fonts, photographs, graphics, software or other assets included in or used with the products remain subject to their respective licences.

This PLR licence does not override third-party restrictions.

You are responsible for ensuring that any additional materials you use are appropriately licensed for your intended commercial distribution.

8. Earnings Disclaimer

The Wedding Content & Marketing Bundle is a digital product resource.

No income, sales, traffic or business results are guaranteed.

Your results will depend on factors including product quality, presentation, marketing, pricing, customer demand and individual effort.

9. Licence Restrictions and Termination

This licence is granted to the original purchaser only.

It may not be sold, assigned or transferred to another person or business without written permission from SN Publishing.

If you materially breach this agreement, SN Publishing may terminate your licence by written notice, subject to applicable law.

Following valid termination, you must stop creating and distributing products using the licensed materials.

Termination does not remove any rights or remedies available under applicable law.

10. Disclaimer and Liability

The materials are provided as general wedding planning resources and should be reviewed and adapted before publication or sale.

SN Publishing does not guarantee that the materials will meet every customer's requirements or comply with every jurisdiction's laws or marketplace policies.

Nothing in this agreement excludes or limits liability or statutory rights where doing so would be unlawful.

11. Agreement

By purchasing, downloading or using the Wedding Content & Marketing Bundle, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to this PLR Licence Agreement.

If you do not agree to these terms, you must not use or distribute the licensed materials.
