Thank you for purchasing the Wedding Stationery & Guest Book Bundle.

Your purchase includes a Private Label Rights (PLR) licence granting you permission to customise, rebrand and commercially use the included wedding stationery designs and guest book resources under the terms outlined in this agreement.

This licence allows you to create your own finished wedding stationery products for personal customers, wedding businesses and digital product buyers without having to design everything from scratch.

By downloading, using or distributing the included materials, you agree to the conditions of this licence.

2. Products Covered by This Licence

This agreement applies to the following resources included in the Wedding Stationery & Guest Book Bundle:

- 20 Wedding Invitation Designs — Customisable invitations for wedding ceremonies and celebrations.

There is no limit on the number of finished end-user products you may sell under this licence.

4. What You Are NOT Allowed to Do

You MAY NOT:

- Resell, transfer, share or give away the original PLR licence.
- Sell the original stationery collection as another PLR package.
- Grant Private Label Rights (PLR), Resell Rights (RR) or Master Resell Rights (MRR) to your customers.

- Share the original product download links or licence documents with other people.
- Sell the unmodified original source package as your own PLR product.
- Claim exclusive copyright ownership of the original underlying designs.

- Use the materials for unlawful, fraudulent or misleading purposes.

Your customers receive personal or end-user usage rights only. They do not receive PLR or reseller rights.

5. Personalisation and Client Work

You may use the supplied designs to provide personalised wedding stationery services.

For example, you may customise wedding invitations with a couple's names, wedding date and venue details, then deliver the finished invitations to your client.

You may also supply finished printable or digital stationery files to clients for their own wedding celebrations.

Clients may print and use the finished designs for their personal wedding requirements.

However, clients may not resell the designs, redistribute the editable source files or grant further commercial rights to other parties.

6. Rebranding and Customisation

You are welcome to adapt the included designs to suit your business or target audience.

You may change product names, colours, typography, layouts, branding and other creative elements.

You do not have to credit SN Publishing or Simon Newcombe when selling your customised finished products.

However, rebranding does not transfer ownership of the original underlying designs or grant exclusive rights to them.

7. Selling Digital and Printed Products

You may sell finished wedding stationery in digital or printed formats.

This includes personalised PDF stationery, printable invitations, physical invitation cards, printed table numbers and completed guest books.

You are responsible for ensuring that the products you distribute are intended for end-user use and do not grant unauthorised resale or PLR permissions.

You must also comply with the policies of any marketplace, printing service or selling platform you use.

8. Copyright and Intellectual Property

The original Wedding Stationery & Guest Book Bundle materials remain the intellectual property of SN Publishing and/or their respective rights holders.

This agreement grants specified commercial usage permissions but does not transfer copyright ownership of the original materials.

You retain ownership of any genuinely original creative elements you add, subject to applicable law and third-party rights.

You may not claim exclusive ownership of the underlying PLR designs.

9. Third-Party Materials

Any third-party fonts, photographs, illustrations, graphics or other assets included in or used with the stationery designs remain subject to their respective licences.

This PLR licence does not override third-party restrictions.

You are responsible for checking that any additional materials you use are appropriately licensed for your intended commercial distribution, including printed products.

10. Earnings Disclaimer

The Wedding Stationery & Guest Book Bundle is a digital design resource.

No income, sales or business results are guaranteed.

Your results will depend on factors including product quality, presentation, pricing, marketing, customer demand and individual effort.

11. Licence Restrictions and Termination

This licence is granted to the original purchaser only.

It may not be sold, assigned or transferred to another person or business without written permission from SN Publishing.

If you materially breach this agreement, SN Publishing may terminate your licence by written notice, subject to applicable law.

Following valid termination, you must stop creating and distributing products using the licensed materials.

Termination does not remove any rights or remedies available under applicable law.

12. Disclaimer and Liability

The materials are provided as customisable wedding stationery resources and should be reviewed before publication, printing or sale.

SN Publishing does not guarantee that the materials will meet every customer's requirements or comply with every jurisdiction's laws or marketplace policies.

Nothing in this agreement excludes or limits liability or statutory rights where doing so would be unlawful.

13. Agreement

By purchasing, downloading or using the Wedding Stationery & Guest Book Bundle, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to this PLR Licence Agreement.

If you do not agree to these terms, you must not use or distribute the licensed materials.
