1. Introduction

Thank you for purchasing the Wedding PLR Reseller Business Package.

This special licence provides additional commercial rights beyond the standard Private Label Rights (PLR) licences included with the individual wedding product collections.

As the original purchaser of this reseller package, you receive permission to customise, rebrand, market and resell the complete Wedding PLR Reseller Business Package under your own business name, subject to the terms of this agreement.

You may also create individual products, collections and sales funnels using the included resources.

Important: This is a PLR + Resell Rights licence, NOT a Master Resell Rights (MRR) licence. Your special reseller rights cannot be transferred to your customers.

By downloading, using or distributing the package, you agree to the terms of this agreement.

2. Products Covered by This Licence

This agreement covers the following three complete product collections:

Collection 1 — Wedding Planning Starter Kit

Includes wedding planning guides, budgeting resources, checklists, worksheets, planning templates, lead magnets and associated marketing resources.

Collection 2 — Wedding Stationery & Guest Book Bundle

Includes:

- 20 Wedding Invitation Designs
- 10 Save-the-Date Card Designs
- 10 RSVP Card Designs
- 50 Wedding Table Number Designs
- 10 Wedding Thank-You Card Designs
- Wedding Guest Book

Collection 3 — Wedding Content & Marketing Bundle

Includes:

- 10 Wedding Planning Blog Articles
- 10 Matching Featured Images
- 30 Wedding Social Media Posts
- 10 Wedding Planning Newsletter Emails
- Supporting SEO titles, descriptions and keywords

This licence also covers any original reseller sales materials expressly identified as included in the package.

Third-party materials remain subject to their own licence terms.

3. Your Private Label Rights (PLR)

As the original purchaser, you may:

- Edit, rewrite, customise and expand the included content.
- Rebrand the materials with your own business name, logo and product titles.
- Change product covers, layouts, colours and designs.
- Create finished digital and printed wedding products.
- Sell individual products and customised collections.
- Use the materials to create wedding planning resources, marketing content and client services.
- Publish permitted blog articles, graphics and marketing materials on your own websites and social media accounts.
- Create free lead magnets, bonuses and promotional resources.
- Combine the materials with your own original content.
- Set your own selling prices.

These permissions are subject to the restrictions in this agreement and any applicable third-party licences.

4. Your Special Resell Rights (RR)

In addition to the PLR permissions above, you are granted special Resell Rights allowing you to sell the complete Wedding PLR Reseller Business Package to your own customers.

You MAY:

- Rebrand the complete reseller package under your own business name.
- Create your own sales page and marketing materials.
- Sell the complete package as a ready-made wedding PLR product collection.
- Offer the three collections together as one bundle.
- Create your own front-end offers and upsell funnels.
- Sell the individual collections under the applicable PLR permissions.
- Choose your own selling prices.
- Keep the revenue generated from your sales, minus applicable payment processing fees, platform charges and taxes.
- Promote the package through your website, email marketing, affiliates and compatible selling platforms.
- Use the supplied reseller marketing materials, where included, to help promote your offers.

There is no fixed limit on the number of permitted sales you may make.

Your special reseller permission applies to you as the original purchaser. It does not pass to your customers.

5. Rights Granted to Your Customers

When you sell the complete package, your customers may receive the included individual wedding product collections with the applicable PLR permissions described below.

Your customers MAY:

- Edit and customise the individual wedding planning resources.
- Rebrand individual finished wedding products.
- Create and sell finished end-user wedding products.
- Personalise wedding stationery for their own customers.
- Use the permitted content for websites, blogs, newsletters and social media.
- Create finished lead magnets and promotional materials.
- Sell finished products under their own business branding.

Your customers MAY NOT:

- Resell the complete Wedding PLR Reseller Business Package as another reseller opportunity.
- Claim or transfer your special OTO 3 reseller licence.
- Sell or distribute the original individual collections as PLR packages.
- Grant PLR, RR or MRR rights to their own customers.
- Pass on the original editable source collections for commercial redistribution.

Your customers receive the applicable PLR usage permissions for individual products, but they do not receive your special complete-package Resell Rights.

You must clearly communicate these restrictions to your customers.

6. What You Are NOT Allowed to Do

You MAY NOT:

- Transfer, assign, sell or give away your special reseller licence.
- Grant Master Resell Rights (MRR) to another person or business.
- Allow customers to resell the complete package with reseller permissions.
- Advertise the complete package as including transferable RR or MRR rights.
- Sell or distribute this special licence agreement as a transferable licence.
- Upload the original reseller source package to public file-sharing services.
- Share your original purchase download link with unauthorised third parties.
- Claim exclusive copyright ownership of the original underlying materials.
- Register the original materials, or substantially unchanged versions, as your exclusive intellectual property.
- Use the materials for unlawful, fraudulent or misleading purposes.

7. Rebranding and Business Identity

You may create your own branding for the complete package.

This includes changing:

- Business and product names
- Product covers and graphics
- Sales page designs
- Marketing copy
- Package presentation
- Pricing and promotional offers

You do not have to credit SN Publishing or Simon Newcombe when selling your rebranded products.

However, rebranding does not transfer copyright ownership of the original underlying materials.

You must not represent yourself as the original creator of materials you did not create where doing so would be unlawful or misleading.

8. Required Customer Licence

When reselling the complete package, you must provide your customers with a separate customer-facing licence explaining their permitted PLR usage rights.

That customer licence must:

- Allow the permitted editing, customisation and rebranding of individual products.
- Allow customers to sell finished end-user products.
- Prohibit transfer of the original PLR rights.
- Prohibit resale of the complete package as a reseller business opportunity.
- Prohibit granting RR or MRR to subsequent customers.
- Preserve applicable copyright and third-party restrictions.

You must not provide customers with this original purchaser's PLR + RR licence as though it grants them the same reseller permissions.

You may use a customer licence supplied by SN Publishing for this purpose.

9. Selling Platforms and Marketplaces

You may sell the permitted products through your own website, digital storefront or compatible online marketplaces.

You are responsible for checking and complying with the rules of each platform.

Some marketplaces restrict PLR products, duplicate content or resell-rights packages.

This licence does not override any third-party platform policies.

10. Copyright and Intellectual Property

The original Wedding PLR Reseller Business Package materials remain the intellectual property of SN Publishing and/or their respective rights holders.

This licence grants specified commercial permissions but does not transfer ownership of the original copyright.

You retain ownership of genuinely original materials you independently create and add, subject to applicable law and third-party rights.

You may not claim exclusive ownership of the underlying licensed materials.

11. Third-Party Assets

Any third-party fonts, images, illustrations, templates, software or other assets remain subject to their respective licences.

This agreement does not grant rights that SN Publishing does not possess.

You are responsible for ensuring that any additional assets you introduce are appropriately licensed for your intended use and distribution.

12. Earnings Disclaimer

This package provides digital products and commercial usage permissions.

It is not a guaranteed income opportunity.

SN Publishing makes no guarantee regarding sales, profits, traffic, business success or earnings.

Your results depend on factors including product positioning, pricing, marketing, customer demand, effort and market conditions.

13. Licence Restrictions and Termination

This licence is granted to the original purchaser only.

It may not be transferred without prior written permission from SN Publishing.

If you materially breach this agreement, SN Publishing may terminate your licence by written notice, subject to applicable law.

Following valid termination, you must stop creating, marketing and distributing products under the terminated permissions.

Lawful customer purchases completed before termination are not automatically cancelled, and customers retain any valid rights already granted to them, subject to applicable law.

14. Disclaimer and Liability

The materials are provided as customisable digital business resources.

You are responsible for reviewing and adapting the products before selling them.

SN Publishing does not guarantee that the package will meet every business requirement or comply with every jurisdiction's laws or marketplace policies.

Nothing in this agreement excludes or limits liability or statutory rights where doing so would be unlawful.

15. Agreement

By purchasing, downloading or using the Wedding PLR Reseller Business Package, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to this PLR + RR Licence Agreement.

If you do not agree to these terms, you must not use or distribute the licensed materials.
